DAILY GAZETTE.

The Libby Prison, Richmond.

No matter what a newspaper reporter gets into—whether a palace or a prison—he whips out his pencil and writes the matter down. So did Mr. Vosburg, a correspondent of the New York Herald, when captured near Fredericksburg, a day or two before the recent battle. After varied experiences, he was so happy as to get into the third story of the Libby Prison, where more than a hundred officers were confined. No sooner there than he begins to take notes as thus:

The officers' room, where I now was, presented at this time a picturesque appearance. There were enough bunks, made of boards and raised about two feet, to accommodate half the inmates. The remainder were compelled to lie on the floor, but this difference in the accommodations was very slight, the only advantage of the cot being that it was somewhat out of the dirt and sawdust with which the floor was strewn. When all were couched one could hardly traverse the length of the room without treading upon more than one sleeper or would-be somnolent.

The apartment was formerly used as a store room, and is the loft of one portion of the warehouse. Its dimensions are about fifty by one hundred feet. The long roof is supported by heavy, upright posts, intersected above by cross-beams and joists. As this portion of the building is of more recent—possibly elder—construction than the remainder, its four walls are of brick. At the eaves the room is about six feet in height, and above we have a view of the net-work of cross beams and joists, and of the rafters to the apex of the roof.

The room fronts northeast, and from five square windows we had something of a view of the town. To the right, across the street, is a large warehouse, occupied as barracks by the City Guard. Back of this is another large building, used as a hospital, and kept constantly guarded on all sides; for even sick, and especially convalescent confederate soldiers are not free from the suspicion of desiring to escape on the first opportunity. To the left, Castle Thunder could be seen.

The windows on the right hand side look across a narrow street, and upon a tobacco warehouse and manufactory, where, during the day, negroes, mostly females, could be seen at work with the fragrant weed.

The back windows overlooked the canal, the James river and the three bridges across it, Manchester, and a delightful stretch of country south of the James.—Rockets is barely discernable on the left.

Here were General Willich, captured at Murfreesboro; Gen. Stoughton and Col. Coburn, of Indiana, whose brigade was captured after desperate resistance against overwhelming numbers, at Thompson's Station, Tenn., on the 5th of March last. There were also Colonels Utley, Gilbert, Buell, Wood and Fletcher; a number of lieutenant colonels, majors, and subordinates too numerous to mention, and the officers of the gunboat Columbia.

Many had been confined as long as five months, and there were men from every prison in the southern confederacy. The treatment which some of them had received before reaching Richmond had been barbarous. Both officers and men of Colonel Coburn's command had been deprived of their overcoats by Gen. Bragg, and had been obliged to march and to lie in the cold and wet. Many of them had perished under this treatment.

The prisoners were furnished with half of a moderate sized loaf of good enough bread and less than half a pound of salt beef daily, with occasional rations of small black beans or rice.

The beef was never good, and was often so bad—though this did not occur during my stay—that they were obliged to throw it away, but no more was furnished in its place. They were allowed to purchase small supplies at fabulous prices. Eggs $1.50 per dozen, dried apples $1,50 per pound, and what was sold for coffee—undoubtedly rye (O Rio)—$1 for a half pound package. They were permitted to draw their money in small quantities to make these purchases. They were compelled to do their own cooking and to scrub the room they occupied. The blankets furnished had been used in hospitals, and were of the filthiest description and swarming with vermin.

OUR KEEPERS.

The "sergeant" who brought in the rations and ordered us, morning and evening to "fall in for roll call," was employed to make purchases for needful articles. For "greenbacks" he allowed a premium of 50 per cent in confederate notes, though it was well known that they sold readily for 100, and they were once quoted in a Richmond journal at 350. It was believed, also, that he exacted from the prisoners a much greater price than he paid for the articles in town; but there was no redress. Opinions differed as to the character of this man. His manners certainly were not pleasing, though he may have cause for ill-nature, in the mimicking of his wnining voice by our officers, and in remarks not flattering to his self-love. The pursy adjutant who superintended the semi-daily roll call looks sufficiently good humored, but he was by no means a favorite. Neither he nor the sergeant seemed to consider it proper ever to address a Yankee prisoner as a gentleman.

A guard from the City Battalion was kept at the head of the stairway within the room. In conversing with these men, we learned that many of them entertained Union sentiments, and that all were heartily tired of the Jeff Davis rule.

OTHER PORTIONS OF THE PRISON.

Over two hundred officers had been confined in the single room; but, before I came, another had been fitted up, and the captains transferred to that. This lower room, which I did not see, was said to be much less pleasant than the one I occupied, being poorly ventilated, and the windows boarded up, so that little could be seen outside, while there was not sufficient light within. Another apartment was used as a prisoners' hospital. The enlisted men were on the lower floor, and their quarters are represented as anything but commodious. Still another room was devoted to the incarceration of civilian prisoners and deserters from our army. Of the civilian prisoners many were sutlers, and it is said that some of them, as well as some deserters, have been confined over a year and a half. Deserters are kept in prison on scant fare, and subject to harsh treatment until they take the oath of allegiance to the confederacy, when they are conscripted.

GEN. WINDER

Visited us on Friday taking a survey of the prison. He is a venerable looking man at first glance, with gray hair; but when one notes his sharp features, with high cheek bones, his cold, cruel gray eye, and his haughty, insulting air, you readily believe him to possess the unrelenting heartlessness attributed to him, and feel that you would like to see his arrogant spirit broken with his knee.

He was approached by an officer, who asked for the return of a beautiful pistol belonging to Gen. Rosecrans, and which this officer had in his possession when captured. Gen. Winder said he did not feel like extending any courtesy to Gen. Rosecrans or any of his command, "as he had issued orders that would disgrace a wild beast." He, however, promised to forward a letter to Gen. Bragg about the pistol."

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion, also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Libby Prison, Richmond.

No matter what a newspaper reporter gets into—whether a palace or a prison—he whips out his pencil and writes the matter down. So did Mr. Vosburg, a correspondent of the New York Herald, when captured near Fredericksburg, a day or two before the recent battle. After varied experiences, he was so happy as to get into the third story of the Libby Prison, where more than a hundred officers were confined. No sooner there than he begins to take notes as thus:

The officers' room, where I now was, presented at this time a picturesque appearance. There were enough bunks, made of boards and raised about two feet, to accommodate half the inmates. The remainder were compelled to lie on the floor, but this difference in the accommodations was very slight, the only advantage of the cot being that it was somewhat out of the dirt and sawdust with which the floor was strewn. When all were couched one could hardly traverse the length of the room without treading upon more than one sleeper or would-be somnolent.

The apartment was formerly used as a store room, and is the loft of one portion of the warehouse. Its dimensions are about fifty by one hundred feet. The long roof is supported by heavy, upright posts, intersected above by cross-beams and joists. As this portion of the building is of more recent—possibly older—construction than the remainder, its four walls are of brick. At the eaves the room is about six feet in height, and above we have a view of the net-work of cross beams and joists, and of the rafters to the apex of the roof.

The room fronts northeast, and from five square windows we had something of a view of the town. To the right, across the street, is a large warehouse, occupied as barracks by the City Guard. Back of this is another large building, used as a hospital, and kept constantly guarded on all sides; for even sick, and especially convalescent confederate soldiers are not free from the suspicion of desiring to escape on the first opportunity. To the left, Castle Thunder could be seen.

The windows on the right hand side look across a narrow street, and upon a tobacco warehouse and manufactory, where, during the day, negroes, mostly females, could be seen at work with the fragrant weed.

The back windows overlooked the canal, the James river and the three bridges across it, Manchester, and a delightful stretch of country south of the James.—Rockets is barely discernable on the left.

Here were General Willich, captured at Murfreesboro; Gen. Stoughton and Col. Coburn, of Indiana, whose brigade was captured after desperate resistance against overwhelming numbers, at Thompson's Station, Tenn., on the 5th of March last. There were also Colonels Utley, Gilbert, Buell, Wood and Fletcher; a number of lieutenant colonels, majors, and subordinates too numerous to mention, and the officers of the gunboat Columbia.

Many had been confined as long as five months, and there were men from every prison in the southern confederacy. The treatment which some of them had received before reaching Richmond had been barbarous. Both officers and men of Colonel Coburn's command had been deprived of their overcoats by Gen. Bragg, and had been obliged to march and to lie in the cold and wet. Many of them had perished under this treatment.

The prisoners were furnished with half of a moderate sized loaf of good enough bread and less than half a pound of salt beef daily, with occasional rations of small black beans or rice.

The beef was never good, and was often so bad—though this did not occur during my stay—that they were obliged to throw it away, but no more was furnished in its place. They were allowed to purchase small supplies at fabulous prices. Eggs $1,50 per dozen, dried apples $1,50 per pound, and what was sold for coffee—undoubtedly rye (O Rio)—$1 for a half pound package. They were permitted to draw their money in small quantities to make these purchases. They were compelled to do their own cooking and to scrub the room they occupied. The blankets furnished had been used in hospitals, and were of the filthiest description and swarming with vermin.

OUR KEEPERS.

The "sergeant" who brought in the rations and ordered us, morning and evening to "fall in for roll call," was employed to make purchases for needful articles. For "greenbacks" he allowed a premium of 50 per cent in confederate notes, though it was well known that they sold readily for 100, and they were once quoted in a Richmond journal at 350. It was believed, also, that he exacted from the prisoners a much greater price than he paid for the articles in town; but there was no redress. Opinions differed as to the character of this man. His manners certainly were not pleasing, though he may have cause for ill-nature, in the mimicking of his whining voice by our officers, and in remarks not flattering to his self-love. The pursy adjutant who superintended the semi-daily roll call looks sufficiently good humored, but he was by no means a favorite. Neither he nor the sergeant seemed to consider it proper ever to address a Yankee prisoner as a gentleman.

A guard from the City Battalion was kept at the head of the stairway within the room. In conversing with these men, we learned that many of them entertained Union sentiments, and that all were heartily tired of the Jeff Davis rule.

OTHER PORTIONS OF THE PRISON.

Over two hundred officers had been confined in the single room; but, before I came, another had been fitted up, and the captains transferred to that. This lower room, which I did not see, was said to be much less pleasant than the one I occupied, being poorly ventilated, and the windows boarded up, so that little could be seen outside, while there was not sufficient light within. Another apartment was used as a prisoners' hospital. The enlisted men were on the lower floor, and their quarters are represented as anything but commodious. Still another room was devoted to the incarceration of civilian prisoners and deserters from our army. Of the civilian prisoners many were sutlers, and it is said that some of them, as well as some deserters, have been confined over a year and a half. Deserters are kept in prison on scant fare, and subject to harsh treatment until they take the oath of allegiance to the confederacy, when they are conscripted.

GEN. WINDER

Visited us on Friday taking a survey of the prison. He is a venerable looking man at first glance, with gray hair; but when one notes his sharp features, with high cheek bones, his cold, cruel gray eye, and his haughty, insulting air, you readily believe him to possess the unrelenting heartlessness attributed to him, and feel that you would like to see his arrogant spirit broken with his knee.

He was approached by an officer, who asked for the return of a beautiful pistol belonging to Gen. Rosecrans, and which this officer had in his possession when captured. Gen. Winder said he did not feel like extending any courtesy to Gen. Rosecrans or any of his command, "as he had issued orders that would disgrace a wild beast." He, however, promised to forward a letter to Gen. Bragg about the pistol."

Vote for Chief Justice.

The official canvass of the vote for chief justice in this state is as follows; Home Vote—Dixon, 51,948; Cothren, 56,840. Soldiers' Vote—Dixon, 9,440; Cothren, 1,747. Total—Dixon, 61,388; Cothren, 57,587. Dixon's official majority, 2,801. The votes of Ashland and Jackson counties, and several companies of soldiers, giving an aggregate of 798 votes for Dixon and 240 for Cothren, were rejected for informalities.

Official returns were received from Oconto and St. Croix counties, and some companies of soldiers, the reported vote of which increases Dixon's majority to about 4,000. The 4th, 22d, 24th regiments did not vote.

General Grant's Army.

The latest dates from the army before Vicksburg, from our own sources, is the 8th. It was then on the Big Black river about seventeen miles from Jackson. All correspondence from there speaks very encouragingly of success. From rebel sources we have dates to the 12th from Jackson. One of them says that the latter place has fallen into our hands. This probably is a mistake. It can scarcely be possible that a battle has not been fought before this time, if the enemy intends to hold Vicksburg. News from this army is looked for with great interest.

The Military and the Civil Power.

The decision of Judge Leavitt, of the United States court at Cincinnati, not to grant the application of Vallandigham for a writ of habeas corpus, practically yields the power of the civil courts to military tribunals, in all matters which pertain to the conduct of the war. This is as it should be. There can be no sufficient strength in an organized government to defend itself in time of war if the military authority is trammeled by the civil power. It is useless to talk about despotisms, and insist that because this is a republican government everything must be decided by votes, ballot boxes and juries. Military affairs cannot be so conducted, and republican institutions would be lost if we waited for these processes.

It is just as idle to say that citizens are never to be held amenable to court martials. It they violate a military order they must be punished by the power that makes the order. If this were not so, spies, informers and those citizens who furnish food, arms, medicines, &c., to an enemy would in many cases escape punishment. So would those who incite mutiny, and bring into contempt in the army the orders of the commanding general. There are hundreds of offences on the part of citizens which must, on account of the nature of the crime, be investigated and decided by a military tribunal alone. Vallandigham's offence is one of these, and is recognized as belonging to military jurisdiction, both by the court martial and the supreme court.

Attention 22d Regiment.

The Madison Journal of Saturday says: By advices at the executive office, from St. Louis, it appears that a considerable number of the paroled men of the 22d regiment, (Col. Utley's) have become restive under the confinement to barracks, and thoughtlessly, or recklessly, taken "French leave" for a visit to their friends in this state. All are now exchanged, and all are absent without leave, and will be rated as deserters, forfeit all pay, and be subject to other punishment, if they do not return at once to duty. The regiment is to be fitted out for active service forthwith.

☞ It is now stated that the two most important railroad bridges between Richmond and Fredericksburg, across the North Anna river, were not destroyed by the cavalry raid, and that the rebels have already repaired their railroads. It is also said that the rebels are swinging the left of their army around so that it shall reach Gordonsville, while their right will be at Bowling Green, which shortens their line of communication with Richmond.

☞ The rebel congress, in secret session, has authorized Jeff. Davis to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and make arbitrary arrests whenever he pleases. What do the northern admirers and sympathizers of Jeff., whose fashion it is to denounce the administration at Washington as the "Lincoln despotism," think of this extension of the one-man power?

☞ It is reported by the New York Times that the sailing line of battle ships in our navy are to be examined, and the sound ones will be converted into steamers. The work has already commenced on the Ohio, and the North Carolina, at New York, will soon be overhauled.

The New Capitol.—The Madison Journal says that Mr. Livsey, the contractor, has commenced the excavation for the new wing of the state capitol.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial

The Siege of Vicksburg.

In Camp on Black River, May 5.

Our two days' march from Port Gibson resembled, in some respects, the well remembered race between Buell and Bragg in Kentucky last autumn. As was the case with the redoubtable Braxton, Bowen was too fleet-footed for us, or possessed some other qualification which enabled him to keep a sufficient distance ahead of us for his own safety. His rear contrived to have our advance two hours behind them on the march. With the many advantages which a retreating army has over its pursuers, it was, perhaps, an impossibility for General Grant to capture the fugitives in great numbers. The country through which the rebels fled is very hilly and uneven, full of knolls and elevations, from which a few pieces of artillery can threaten destruction to a small army. The rebel rear guard was furnished with the necessary appliances for holding us at bay, and used them to the best advantage. We labored, too, under the disadvantage of a deficient knowledge of the country, and were, on one or two occasions, put upon the wrong track by the false representations of citizens as to the route the foe had taken.

INCIDENTS OF THE LATE BATTLE.

In one or two instances our men mistook regiments of their own stripe for the enemy. The 13d Ohio fired a volley into the 69th Indiana, wounding two or three men.

Surgeons report that about twenty per cent. of our wounded in the late engagement will die. A large proportion of rebel wounds will prove fatal, owing, it is said, to the unhealthy condition of the confederate soldiers, compared with ours. The health of this army is better now than it has been for a year past.

It is a noticeable fact that where old and new regiments were engaged at the same time and in the same line on the first, the casualities were much greater in the new than in the old. This was because the experienced soldiers took every advantage of cover afforded by trees and ravines, while those whose first battle it was, exposed themselves unnecessarily, without doing any greater amount of execution to the enemy. The 48th Ohio was in the thickest of the fight, and lost less than many new regiments that can hardly be said to have participated in the fight.

The rebels lost nearly every artillery horse they brought into the engagement. We did not lose a single horse.

One of our shells exploded in the bowels of a rebel artillery horse, scattering his bones, flesh and entrails in every direction.

Wherever the rebels showed themselves in open space, our men killed them in large numbers. In one place I saw fifteen of their dead lying; every one of them had been killed by shots through the head.

Several rebel regiments were armed with Springfield muskets, rifled and altered from flint to percussion locks, which they had captured from us on different battle-fields.

THE SITUATION.

Our enemy is now encamped on Black river, whether for the mere purpose of affording rest to the troops after their fatiguing marches, or for some other cause, I do not know. We are fifteen miles from Warrenton and twenty five from Vicksburg. The roads are in excellent condition in our front and rear. I hear no more of the grand canal project by which it was intended to send supplies from Duckport to Carthage. Certain it is that it is not being used now, and is not likely to be ready for use for two months, at the expiration of which time we will not be likely to need it much, I think. During the summer season the roads in this country are usually good, and our supplies can be wagoned from Milliken's Bend for the short time that the siege of Vicksburg is likely to last.

The rebels are reported by deserters from Vicksburg to be contracting their lines in Mississippi. They are withdrawing small garrisons from unimportant points so as to enable them to use the whole of their available force in the struggle for the southwestern Gibraltar. Next to the town of Vicksburg itself, their effort seems to be to strengthen the forces for the protection of the Jackson railroad bridge across Big Black. Bowen's retreating army is said to be moving toward the bridge.

Gen. Pemberton is in command of the rebel force in our front. Joseph E. Johnston is now in Tennessee, but prisoners report that he will be in Vicksburg in time to command in person in the engagement that must soon take place there.

A great many families who moved away from Vicksburg some months since, when the bombardment of the town was threatened for the first time this year, have returned, and the city is reported full of citizens.

I have it from good authority that the rebels cannot concentrate at any point near Vicksburg, or its approaches more than 50,000 men. They are all confident, however of their ability to hold the place against any force that General Grant can bring to bear against them. The feeling among the officers and soldiers of their army, and of the rebel citizens here and elsewhere, is that to lose Vicksburg is to lose their cause and blight their hopes forever.

Premium on Murder.—Who can read, without indignation, the following, which forms a portion of the proceedings of a copperhead convention lately held in Brown county, Indiana:

"On motion, Lewis Prosses was unanimously nominated as the democratic candidate for county clerk by acclamation."

This is the same Prosser who, on the 18th of April (one week before the convention,) murdered a sergeant named Daniels for attempting to take from him a gun with which Prosser threatened to shoot a soldier "before night." Thus it will be seen that the wilful murder of a soldier because he was such is regarded by copperheads as the best recommendation a man can have to secure office. This convention, by its action, counsels candidates for nomination in counties that give copperhead majorities to follow the example of Prosser as the surest mode of paving the way to promotion.—St. Joseph Herald.

An Old Lady's Welcome to the Flag.—A letter from Monticello, Ky., speaking of the manner in which the people received our troops in their recent advance upon that place, says: "One old lady, a mile beyond this place, said, as she saw our columns rushing after the rebels: 'When I seed the ould flag comin', I jist throwed my ould bonnet on the ground and stomped it.'"

"Carleton," of the Boston Journal, says that Hooker's plan was to fight a defensive battle, to let the enemy exhaust himself in attacking, and then fall upon him with fresh divisions and cut him in pieces. It was essential to the success of his plan that Stoneman should succeed. He had no tidings from Stoneman, and therefore delayed to strike. Meanwhile the storm came on, and it was deemed wisest to fall back.

Heavy Stamp.—The round sum of $2,000 in excise stamps were placed on two deeds that were recorded this week in the office of register of deeds for La Crosse county. Those documents contained the title to the western division of the La Crosse and Milwaukee railroad, and the accompanying land grant. "Uncle Sam" received a grand benefit on this occasion.—La Crosse Republican.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

Murfreesboro, May 17.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The Chattanooga Rebel, of the 16th inst., contains the following dispatch:

Mobile, May 14.—Jackson, Miss., is occupied by the enemy. We fought them all day, could not hold the city.

Cairo, May 17.

Dispatches received here from Memphis, and dated yesterday, are made up of secession rumors and reports, many of which are known to be without foundation in truth, and the censor refuses to permit them to pass.

Outside of this, I learn that Grant was at Raymond, which is ten miles from the railroad, on the 11th. We have had nothing from the front for two days, and this silence of itself seems portentious.

General Ellet's fleet went below this afternoon.

Washington, May 17.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—By order of yesterday, Provost Marshal Gen. Fry gave notice that provost marshals and members of boards recently appointed under the enrollment law, must signify their acceptance immediately, or their appointment will be regarded as declined.

A dispatch received at the war department from Fortress Monroe says that prisoners arriving there from Richmond think the whole number taken by the rebels in the recent battles will not exceed 4,500.

The following order made public to day announces a change in the department of Missouri, spoken of in last night's dispatches:

War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, May 13, 1863.

General Order No. 121.—First—Major General J. M. Schofield is by direction of the President assigned to the command of the department. Second—Major General S. R. Curtis being relieved from his command, will report by letter to the adjutant general of the army.

By order of the President.

E. D. Townsend, A. A. G.

In Buell's case it is believed the record of the court, which has arrived, shows that his campaign utterly failed, and that the President was too slow in removing him.

Hon. Preston King is talked of as second comptroller.

Attorney General Bates and Postmaster General Blair are to be mainly credited with Gen. Curtis' removal. Schofield may be merely a locum tenens.

Henry Bergh, of New York, succeeds Bayard Taylor for secretaryship of legation at St. Petersburg.

The opinion of the Buell commission is brief and conclusive, and believed to be mild. The commission was authorized to recommend the disposition of officers implicated as well as to sum up the campaign. It is doubtful whether publication will be made at present, if at all. Halleck is said not to be well pleased with the finding. Buell was stopped in the publication of his defence by order of government.

The issue of legal tender notes is discontinued, and all blank ones on hand are sealed up. The whole amount issued is about $105,000,000.

Cincinnati, May 18.

Judge Leavitt, on Saturday, delivered a lengthy decision in the Vallandigham habeas corpus case, refusing the writ. The decision gives great satisfaction here.

Gen. Burnside has not yet announced the sentence of the court martial, but I have it, from what I consider good authority, that the sentence is confinement at Fort Washington, and that it will be announced on Monday evening or Tuesday next.

Indianapolis, May 15.

Gen. Hascall has issued an order suppressing the Columbia City News.

The city is full of exchanged soldiers, and the work of reorganizing them is being actively pushed.

It is stated that over 500 negroes have already been recruited in Indiana for Massachusetts regiments.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

New York, May 17.

The steamer City of New York from Liverpool 6th and Queenstown 7th, arrived at midnight. A deputation of "Trades Unionists," headed by Bright, presented an address, adopted at the last meeting, sympathizing with the north, to Minister adams. Mr. Adams made a speech expressing great pleasure at the reception of the address. He admitted the difficulties of steering clear of collisions between the two nations, but trusted that friendly relations would be maintained. He asserted that notwithstanding the tone of some American speakers and journals, there is no nation for which he would entertain greater regard than for England, and if the real sentiments of each people could be clearly established to each other he would have no fear of collision. He believed that the "Trades Unionists" had taken the right course to produce such an understanding. The Times looks upon Mr. Adams speech as most reasonable and timely, and looks forward without mistrust for mutual forbearance. England must expect some interrupttons to trade, and Americans must tolerate the short comings in consideration of the difficulties of neutrals.

In another article the Times argues that it behooves England to look leniently on the proceedings of Wilkes, in view of the maintainance of her own rights when she becomes a belligerent.

The London Observer in a pacific editorial credits the Lincoln government with desire to cultivate friendly relations.

Mr. Layard, in the house of commons, explained the hauling down of the American flag at Sanberer during the stay there of a British man-of-war. Phalon denied American jurisdiction and claimed that the island had long been a part of the British possessions in the Carribean Sea. There had been no correspondence on the subject.

Russian replies to the powers on the Polish question are published. It agrees to negotiate in a pacific manner on the basis of the treaty of 1855. The reply is not generally regarded as satisfactory. The insurgents continue active.

Liverpool, May 6.

Cotton active and prices advanced ¼a½ since Friday last. The greatest improvement is in insurance. Sales of Monday 2,500 bales. Richardson, Spence and others, report flour neglected and generally 6d cheaper; extra state 22a26. Wheat in very limited demand, and in most instances 2a3 per cent. lower. Red western 9 and 3a9 and 6; white western 10a10 and 4. Corn freely offered at 29 and 6a29 and 9 for mixed. The same authorities quote beef in good demand, and steady for better sorts. Pork steady.

London Markets.—Breadstuffs flat but without change.

Latest.—Politics unimportant. Cotton firm with a upward tendency. Quotations unchanged.

Breadstuff inactive and flat. Provisions dull and unchanged.

New York, May 18.

Morning papers and specials are barren of much else than speculations.

The Tribune's dispatch says the movements on foot are strongly supported in and out of the cabinet for the appointment of General Butler to command the department of the west. Provost marshals have been directed to proceed with the draft forthwith, but it is supposed doubtful whether any can be made before the middle of July. Volunteers may be called for before that time.

The Times' dispatch states that Senators Wade and Chandler arrived from Falmouth and report our troops in the most effective condition and in the best of spirits. They are impatient for an immediate advance on Lee's army. Capt. Flager, our chief ordnance officer, reports that we lost eight guns and captured nine. That is putting the lie on the rebel assertion that they captured 50 guns.

Fortress Monroe, May 16.

Two small boats, the Emily and Arrow, engaged in carrying mails, &c., from Norfolk through the Dismal Swamp Canal to North Carolina, were captured yesterday near Currituck bridge, 40 miles from Norfolk. All on board were taken off towards Franklin on the Blackwater. The rebels made our men work boats in order to pass our gunboats without detection.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 15th has the following:

Jackson, Miss., May 12.—The enemy, yesterday, advanced with a column of 12,000 men upon Raymond, Miss., where Gen. Grigg had 4,100 infantry, a few cavalry and no artillery. Skirmishing began at 9 a. m. The enemy being continually reinforced until 1 p. m., when he opened the battle heavily with musketry. Gregg fought two hours with musketry alone, when learning that the enemy were heavily reinforced, and that the reinforcements were ready to engage he retreated through Raymond. He will make a stand at Mississippi Spring where he has been reinforced with infantry and artillery.

From the Charleston Mercury.—The guns of the Keokuk now lie on the south Commercial Wharf. They consist of two long 11 inch Columbiads and will soon be mounted for our defense. They are valuable acquisitions, no less than handsome trophies of the battle of Charleston harbor.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Washington, May 18.

The war department has officially proclaimed instructions for the government of the armies of the United States in the field, prepared by Francis Lieber, and revised by a board of officers. They are approved and commanded to be published by the President.

New York, May 18.

Flour dull, heavy and 10c lower. Wheat unsettled and 2c lower; 1,21a1,40 for Chicago spring; 1,33a1,48 Milwaukee club. Corn heavy and 2c lower; 75a78 sound; 71a75 unsound. Whisky 44a45½.

The Petersburg Express of the 15th says: The resolutions adopted by the confederate congress provides that every commissioned officer commanding negroes against the confederate states, when captured shall be put to death, and the negroes delivered to the state authorities to be put to death, according to the present or future laws. The same paper speaks despondingly about affairs at Vicksburg; says it is due the people that they should know how affairs stand.

New York, May 18.

A steamer from Port Royal reports as off Charleston on the 14th and heard heavy firing from 2 to 5 p. m., in the harbor, supposed to be our iron clads attacking the batteries on Morris Island.

☞ The Milwaukee See Bote has a report that the grand jury of Ozaukee county, just adjourned, found indictments against Gov. Salomon and Hon. W. D. McIndoe, formerly provost marshal, for the alleged unlawful arrest of citizens of that county last fall—the anti-draft rioters.

☞ Thompson's Reporter says: On the 1st of June the excise law, as regards stamps, goes into full and fatal operation. By this we mean that all instruments requiring stamps are declared null and void if not stamped according to law. This, with the penalty for violating the law enforced, will cause a better demand for stamps.

Mrs. Douglas.—The Cincinnati Enquirer, good authority no doubt, states that the paragraph going the rounds of the papers to the effect that Mrs. Douglas, widow of Stephen A. Douglas, deceased, has a right of dower in some of her husband's estate, in consequence of her neglect to join with him in certain conveyances of property, is entirely incorrect. Mr. Douglas "died insolvent, leaving his wife nothing but the inheritance of a glorious and patriotic name."

Counterfeit fifty cents, postage currency, are in quite general circulation. The engraving is rather course and blurred, but the appearance is such as not to excite suspicion. On the right hand lower corner are the words post office. In the counterfeit the words run together thus, POSTOFFICE; in the genuine the words are divided, thus, POST OFFICE.

We find the following in one of our exchanges: "Beriah Brown's newspaper at Sacramento City, California, was destroyed by a mob on the morning of the 20th ult." The cause of the mob is not stated.

The Next Governor.—Who shall be the next candidate for governor on the part of the Union men of the state, is already exciting some discussion among our cotemporaries. The opinion has been prevalent that the present incumbent of the office, (Gov. Salomon) would in no circumstances be a candidate for re-election. We are assured, however, on unquestionable authority that he has so far yielded to pressing requests to allow the use of his name, as to say that while he will make no efforts to secure a nomination he will accept one should it be tendered him. This is frank, honorable and sufficiently explicit. The governor has many friends who will be pleased with this assurance.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Cure for a Felon.—As soon as the part begins to swell get the Tincture of Lobelia and wrap the part affected thick with a cloth; saturate it thoroughly with the tincture, and the felon is dead. An old physician says he has known this to cure in scores of cases, and that it never fails if applied in season.

To be a woman of fashion is one of the easiest things in the world. A late writer thus describes it: Buy everything you don't want, and pay for nothing you get; smile on all mankind but your husband, be happy everywhere but at home; neglect your children and nurse lapdogs; go to church every time you get a new dress.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Vote for Chief Justice.

The official canvass of the vote for chief justice in this state is as follows; Home Vote—Dixon, 51,948; Cothren, 56,840. Soldiers' Vote—Dixon, 9,440; Cothren, 1,747. Total—Dixon, 61,388; Cothren, 57,587. Dixon's official majority, 2,801. The votes of Ashland and Jackson counties, and several companies of soldiers, giving an aggregate of 798 votes for Dixon and 240 for Cothren, were rejected for informalities.

Official returns were received from Oconto and St. Croix counties, and some companies of soldiers, the reported vote of which increases Dixon's majority to about 4,000. The 4th, 22d, 24th regiments did not vote.

General Grant's Army.

The latest dates from the army before Vicksburg, from our own sources, is the 8th. It was then on the Big Black river about seventeen miles from Jackson. All correspondence from there speaks very encouragingly of success. From rebel sources we have dates to the 12th from Jackson. One of them says that the latter place has fallen into our hands. This probably is a mistake. It can scarcely be possible that a battle has not been fought before this time, if the enemy intends to hold Vicksburg. News from this army is looked for with great interest.

The Military and the Civil Power.

The decision of Judge Leavitt, of the United States court at Cincinnati, not to grant the application of Vallandigham for a writ of habeas corpus, practically yields the power of the civil courts to military tribunals, in all matters which pertain to the conduct of the war. This is as it should be. There can be no sufficient strength in an organized government to defend itself in time of war if the military authority is trammeled by the civil power. It is useless to talk about despotisms, and insist that because this is a republican government everything must be decided by votes, ballot boxes and juries. Military affairs cannot be so conducted, and republican institutions would be lost if we waited for these processes.

It is just as idle to say that citizens are never to be held amenable to court martials. It they violate a military order they must be punished by the power that makes the order. If this were not so, spies, informers and those citizens who furnish food, arms, medicines, &c., to an enemy would in many cases escape punishment. So would those who incite mutiny, and bring into contempt in the army the orders of the commanding general. There are hundreds of offences on the part of citizens which must, on account of the nature of the crime, be investigated and decided by a military tribunal alone. Vallandigham's offence is one of these, and is recognized as belonging to military jurisdiction, both by the court martial and the supreme court.

Attention 22d Regiment.

The Madison Journal of Saturday says: By advices at the executive office, from St. Louis, it appears that a considerable number of the paroled men of the 22d regiment, (Col. Utley's) have become restive under the confinement to barracks, and thoughtlessly, or recklessly, taken "French leave" for a visit to their friends in this state. All are now exchanged, and all are absent without leave, and will be rated as deserters, forfeit all pay, and be subject to other punishment, if they do not return at once to duty. The regiment is to be fitted out for active service forthwith.

☞ It is now stated that the two most important railroad bridges between Richmond and Fredericksburg, across the North Anna river, were not destroyed by the cavalry raid, and that the rebels have already repaired their railroads. It is also said that the rebels are swinging the left of their army around so that it shall reach Gordonsville, while their right will be at Bowling Green, which shortens their line of communication with Richmond.

☞ The rebel congress, in secret session, has authorized Jeff. Davis to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and make arbitrary arrests whenever he pleases. What do the northern admirers and sympathizers of Jeff., whose fashion it is to denounce the administration at Washington as the "Lincoln despotism," think of this extension of the one-man power?

☞ It is reported by the New York Times that the sailing line of battle ships in our navy are to be examined, and the sound ones will be converted into steamers. The work has already commenced on the Ohio, and the North Carolina, at New York, will soon be overhauled.

The New Capitol.—The Madison Journal says that Mr. Livsey, the contractor, has commenced the excavation for the new wing of the state capitol.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial.

The Siege of Vicksburg.

In Camp on Black River, May 5.

Our two days' march from Port Gibson resembled, in some respects, the well remembered race between Buell and Bragg in Kentucky last autumn. As was the case with the redoubtable Braxton, Bowen was too fleet-footed for us, or possessed some other qualification which enabled him to keep a sufficient distance ahead of us for his own safety. His rear contrived to have our advance two hours behind them on the march. With the many advantages which a retreating army has over its pursuers, it was, perhaps, an impossibility for General Grant to capture the fugitives in great numbers. The country through which the rebels fled is very hilly and uneven, full of knolls and elevations, from which a few pieces of artillery can threaten destruction to a small army. The rebel rear guard was furnished with the necessary appliances for holding us at bay, and used them to the best advantage. We labored, too, under the disadvantage of a deficient knowledge of the country, and were, on one or two occasions, put upon the wrong track by the false representations of citizens as to the route the foe had taken.

INCIDENTS OF THE LATE BATTLE.

In one or two instances our men mistook regiments of their own stripe for the enemy. The 43d Ohio fired a volley into the 69th Indiana, wounding two or three men.

Surgeons report that about twenty per cent. of our wounded in the late engagement will die. A large proportion of rebel wounds will prove fatal, owing, it is said, to the unhealthy condition of the confederate soldiers, compared with ours. The health of this army is better now than it has been for a year past.

It is a noticeable fact that where old and new regiments were engaged at the same time and in the same line on the first, the casualities were much greater in the new than in the old. This was because the experienced soldiers took every advantage of cover afforded by trees and ravines, while those whose first battle it was, exposed themselves unnecessarily, without doing any greater amount of execution to the enemy. The 48th Ohio was in the thickest of the fight, and lost less than many new regiments that can hardly be said to have participated in the fight.

The rebels lost nearly every artillery horse they brought into the engagement. We did not lose a single horse.

One of our shells exploded in the bowels of a rebel artillery horse, scattering his bones, flesh and entrails in every direction.

Wherever the rebels showed themselves in open space, our men killed them in large numbers. In one place I saw fifteen of their dead lying; every one of them had been killed by shots through the head.

Several rebel regiments were armed with Springfield muskets, rifled and altered from flint to percussion locks, which they had captured from us on different battle-fields.

THE SITUATION.

Our enemy is now encamped on Black river, whether for the troops after their fatiguing marches, or for some other cause, I do not know. We are fifteen miles from Warrenton and twenty-five from Vicksburg. The roads are in excellent condition in our front and rear. I hear no more of the grand canal project by which it was intended to send supplies from Duckport to Carthage. Certain it is that it is not being used now, and is not likely to be ready for use for two months, at the expiration of which time we will not be likely to need it much, I think. During the summer season the roads in this country are usually good, and our supplies can be wagoned from Milliken's Bend for the short time that the siege of Vicksburg is likely to last.

The rebels are reported by deserters from Vicksburg to be contracting their lines in Mississippi. They are withdrawing small garrisons from unimportant points so as to enable them to use the whole of their available force in the struggle for the southwestern Gibraltar. Next to the town of Vicksburg itself, their effort seems to be to strengthen the forces for the protection of the Jackson railroad bridge across Big Black. Bowen's retreating army is said to be moving toward the bridge.

Gen. Pemberton is in command of the rebel force in our front. Joseph E. Johnston is now in Tennessee, but prisoners report that he will be in Vicksburg in time to command in person in the engagement that must soon take place there.

A great many families who moved away from Vicksburg some months since, when the bombardment of the town was threatened for the first time this year, have returned, and the city is reported full of citizens.

I have it from good authority that the rebels cannot concentrate at any point near Vicksburg, or its approaches more than 50,000 men. They are all confident, however of their ability to hold the place against any force that General Grant can bring to bear against them. The feeling among the officers and soldiers of their army, and of the rebel citizens here and elsewhere, is that to lose Vicksburg is to lose their cause and blight their hopes forever.

Premium on Murder.—Who can read, without indignation, the following, which forms a portion of the proceedings of a copperhead convention lately held in Brown county, Indiana:

"On motion, Lewis Prosses was unanimously nominated as the democratic candidate for county clerk by acclamation."

This is the same Prosser who, on the 18th of April (one week before the convention,) murdered a sergeant named Daniels for attempting to take from him a gun with which Prosser threatened to shoot a soldier "before night." Thus it will be seen that the wilful murder of a soldier because he was such is regarded by copperheads as the best recommendation a man can have to secure office. This convention, by its action, counsels candidates for nomination in counties that give copperhead majorities to follow the example of Prosser as the surest mode of paving the way to promotion.—St. Joseph Herald.

An Old Lady's Welcome to the Flag.—A letter from Monticello, Ky., speaking of the manner in which the people received our troops in their recent advance upon that place, says: "One old lady, a mile beyond this place, said, as she saw our columns rushing after the rebels: 'When I seed the ould flag comin', I jist throwed my ould bonnet on the ground and stomped it.'"

"Carleton," of the Boston Journal, says that Hooker's plan was to fight a defensive battle, to let the enemy exhaust himself in attacking, and then fall upon him with fresh divisions and cut him in pieces. It was essential to the success of his plan that Stoneman should succeed. He had no tidings from Stoneman, and therefore delayed to strike. Meanwhile the storm came on, and it was deemed wisest to fall back.

Heavy Stamp.—The round sum of $2,000 in excise stamps were placed on two deeds that were recorded this week in the office of register of deeds for La Crosse county. Those documents contained the title to the western division of the La Crosse and Milwaukee railroad, and the accompanying land grant. "Uncle Sam" received a grand benefit on this occasion.—La Crosse Republican.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

Murfreesboro, May 17.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The Chattanooga Rebel, of the 16th inst., contains the following dispatch:

Mobile, May 14.—Jackson, Miss., is occupied by the enemy. We fought them all day, could not hold the city.

Cairo, May 17.

Dispatches received here from Memphis, and dated yesterday, are made up of secession rumors and reports, many of which are known to be without foundation in truth, and the censor refuses to permit them to pass.

Outside of this, I learn that Grant was at Raymond, which is ten miles from the railroad, on the 11th. We have had nothing from the front for two days, and this silence of itself seems portentious.

General Ellet's fleet went below this afternoon.

Washington, May 17.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—By order of yesterday, Provost Marshal Gen. Fry gave notice that provost marshals and members of boards recently appointed under the enrollment law, must signify their acceptance immediately, or their appointment will be regarded as declined.

A dispatch received at the war department from Fortress Monroe says that prisners arriving there from Richmond think the whole number taken by the rebels in the recent battles will not exceed 4,500.

The following order made public to day announces a change in the department of Missouri, spoken of in last night's dispatches:

War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, May 13, 1863.

General Order No. 121.—First—Major General J. M. Schofield is by direction of the President assigned to the command of the department. Second—Major General S. R. Curtis being relieved from his command, will report by letter to the adjutant general of the army.

By order of the President.

E. D. Townsend, A. A. G.

In Buell's case it is believed the record of the court, which has arrived, shows that his campaign utterly failed, and that the President was too slow in removing him.

Hon. Preston King is talked of as second comptroller.

Attorney General Bates and Postmaster General Blair are to be mainly credited with Gen. Curtis' removal. Schofield may be merely a locum tenens.

Henry Bergh, of New York, succeeds Bayard Taylor for secretaryship of legation at St. Petersburg.

The opinion of the Buell commission is brief and conclusive, and believed to be mild. The commission was authorized to recommend the disposition of officers implicated as well as to sum up the campaign. It is doubtful whether publication will be made at present, if at all. Halleck is said not to be well pleased with the finding. Buell was stopped in the publication of his defence by order of government.

The issue of legal tender notes is discontinued, and all blank ones on hand are sealed up. The whole amount issued is about $405,000,000.

Cincinnati, May 18.

Judge Leavitt, on Saturday, delivered a lengthy decision in the Vallandigham habeas corpus case, refusing the writ. The decision gives great satisfaction here.

Gen. Burnside has not yet announced the sentence of the court martial, but I have it, from what I consider good authority, that the sentence is confinement at Fort Washington, and that it will be announced on Monday evening or Tuesday next.

Indianapolis, May 15.

Gen. Hascall has issued an order suppressing the Columbia City News.

The city is full of exchanged soldiers, and the work of reorganizing them is being actively pushed.

It is stated that over 500 negroes have already been recruited in Indiana for Massachusetts regiments.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

New York, May 17.

The steamer City of New York from Liverpool 6th and Queenstown 7th, arrived at midnight. A deputation of "Trades Unionists," headed by Bright, presented an address, adopted at the last meeting, sympathizing with the north, to Minister adams. Mr. Adams made a speech expressing great pleasure at the reception of the address. He admitted the difficulties of steering clear of collisions between the two nations, but trusted that friendly relations would be maintained. He asserted that notwithstanding the tone of some American speakers and journals, there is no nation for which he would entertain greater regard than for England, and if the real sentiments of each people could be clearly established to each other he would have no fear of collision. He believed that the "Trades Unionists" had taken the right course to produce such an understanding. The Times looks upon Mr. Adams speech as most reasonable and timely, and looks forward without mistrust for mutual forbearance. England must expect some interrupttons to trade, and Americans must tolerate the short comings in consideration of the difficulties of neutrals.

In another article the Times argues that it behooves England to look leniently on the proceedings of Wilkes, in view of the maintainance of her own rights when she becomes a belligerent.

The London Observer in a pacific editorial credits the Lincoln government with desire to cultivate friendly relations.

Mr. Layard, in the house of commons, explained the hauling down of the American flag at Sauberer during the stay there of a British man-of-war. Phalon denied American jurisdiction and claimed that the island had long been a part of the British possessions in the Carribean Sea. There had been no correspondence on the subject.

Russian replies to the powers on the Polish question are published. It agrees to negotiate in a pacific manner on the basis of the treaty of 1855. The reply is not generally regarded as satisfactory. The insurgents continue active.

Liverpool, May 6.

Cotton active and prices advanced ¼a½ since Friday last. The greatest improvement is in insurance. Sales of Monday 2,500 bales. Richardson, Spence and others, report flour neglected and generally 6d cheaper; extra state 22a26. Wheat in very limited demand, and in most instances 2a3 per cent. lower. Red western 9 and 3a9 and 6; white western 10a10 and 4. Corn freely offered at 29 and 6a29 and 9 for mixed. The same authorities quote beef in good demand, and steady for better sorts. Pork steady.

London Markets.—Breadstuffs flat but without change.

Latest.—Politics unimportant. Cotton firm with a upward tendency. Quotations unchanged.

Breadstuff inactive and flat. Provisions dull and unchanged.

New York, May 18.

Morning papers and specials are barren of much else than speculations.

The Tribune's dispatch says the movements on foot are strongly supported in and out of the cabinet for the appointment of General Butler to command the department of the west. Provost marshals have been directed to proceed with the draft forthwith, but it is supposed doubtful whether any can be made before the middle of July. Volunteers may be called for before that time. The Times' dispatch states that Senators Wade and Chandler arrived from Falmouth and report our troops in the most effective condition and in the best of spirits. They are impatient for an immediate advance on Lee's army. Capt. Flager, our chief ordnance officer, reports that we lost eight guns and captured nine. That is putting the lie on the rebel assertion that they captured 50 guns.

Fortress Monroe, May 16.

Two small boats, the Emily and Arrow, engaged in carrying mails, &c., from Norfolk through the Dismal Swamp Canal to North Carolina, were captured yesterday near Currituck bridge, 40 miles from Norfolk. All on board were taken off towards Franklin on the Blackwater. The rebels made our men work boats in order to pass our gunboats without detection.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 15th has the following:

Jackson, Miss., May 12.—The enemy, yesterday, advanced with a column of 12,000 men upon Raymond, Miss., where Gen. Grigg had 4,100 infantry, a few cavalry and no artillery. Skirmishing began at 9 a. m. The enemy being continually reinforced until 1 p. m., when he opened the battle heavily with musketry. Gregg fought two hours with musketry alone, when learning that the enemy were heavily reinforced, and that the reinforcements were ready to engage he retreated through Raymond. He will make a stand at Mississippi Spring where he has been reinforced with infantry and artillery.

From the Charleston Mercury.—The guns of the Keokuk now lie on the south Commercial Wharf. They consist of two long 11 inch Columbiads and will soon be mounted for our defense. They are valuable acquisitions, no less than handsome trophies of the battle of Charleston harbor.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Washington, May 18.

The war department has officially proclaimed instructions for the government of the armies of the United States in the field, prepared by Francis Lieber, and revised by a board of officers. They are approved and commanded to be published by the President.

New York, May 18.

Flour dull, heavy and 10c lower. Wheat unsettled and 2c lower; 1,21a1,40 for Chicago spring; 1,33a1,48 Milwaukee club. Corn heavy and 2c lower; 75a78 sound; 71a75 unsound. Whisky 44a45½.

The Petersburg Express of the 15th says: The resolutions adopted by the confederate congress provides that every commissioned officer commanding negroes against the confederate states, when captured shall be put to death, and the negroes delivered to the state authorities to be put to death, according to the present or future laws. The same paper speaks despondingly about affairs at Vicksburg; says it is due the people that they should know how affairs stand.

New York, May 18.

A steamer from Port Royal reports as off Charleston on the 14th and heard heavy firing from 2 to 5 p. m., in the harbor, supposed to be our iron clads attacking the batteries on Morris Island.

☞ The Milwaukee See Bote has a report that the grand jury of Ozaukee county, just adjourned, found indictments against Gov. Salomon and Hon. W. D. McIndoe, formerly provost marshal, for the alleged unlawful arrest of citizens of that county last fall—the anti-draft rioters.

☞ Thompson's Reporter says: On the 1st of June the excise law, as regards stamps, goes into full and fatal operation. By this we mean that all instruments requiring stamps are declared null and void if not stamped according to law. This, with the penalty for violating the law enforced, will cause a better demand for stamps.

Mrs. Douglas.—The Cincinnati Enquirer, good authority no doubt, states that the paragraph going the rounds of the papers to the effect that Mrs. Douglas, widow of Stephen A. Douglas, deceased, has a right of dower in some of her husband's estate, in consequence of her neglect to join with him in certain conveyances of property, is entirely incorrect. Mr. Douglas "died insolvent, leaving his wife nothing but the inheritance of a glorious and patriotic name."

Counterfeit fifty cents, postage currency, are in quite general circulation. The engraving is rather course and blurred, but the appearance is such as not to excite suspicion. On the right hand lower corner are the words post office. In the counterfeit the words run together thus, POSTOFFICE; in the genuine the words are divided, thus, POST OFFICE.

We find the following in one of our exchanges: "Beriah Brown's newspaper at Sacramento City, California, was destroyed by a mob on the morning of the 20th ult." The cause of the mob is not stated.

The Next Governor.—Who shall be the next candidate for governor on the part of the Union men of the state, is already exciting some discussion among our cotemporaries. The opinion has been prevalent that the present incumbent of the office, (Gov. Salomon) would in no circumstances be a candidate for re-election. We are assured, however, on unquestionable authority that he has so far yielded to pressing requests to allow the use of his name, as to say that while he will make no efforts to secure a nomination he will accept one should it be tendered him. This is frank, honorable and sufficiently explicit. The governor has many friends who will be pleased with this assurance.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Cure for a Felon.—As soon as the part begins to swell get the Tincture of Lobelia and wrap the part affected thick with a cloth; saturate it thoroughly with the tincture, and the felon is dead. An old physician says he has known this to cure in scores of cases, and that it never fails if applied in season.

To be a woman of fashion is one of the easiest things in the world. A late writer thus describes it: Buy everything you don't want, and pay for nothing you get; smile on all mankind but your husband, be happy everywhere but at home; neglect your children and nurse lapdogs; go to church every time you get a new dress.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

From the Twelfth Battery.

CAMP IN THE FIELD, May 4.

EDS. GAZETTE:—You are probably by this time quite anxious to hear of our whereabouts, but I do not know as I can inform you as to that, for it is impossible to ascertain localities in this country, but from what I learn we are nearly in the rear of Vicksburg. We crossed the river on the first of May, just too late to take part in the battle, and the next morning marched nearly to the front, Logan's division taking the advance and our division next in order. The rebels have been retreating for the last two days but have now, I hear, made a stand; at least it looks like it, for there was fighting at the front all of last night and nearly all the forenoon.

The boys are all well and in good spirits. Lieut. Harlow we left on the Louisiana side of the river, he having been sick some time. Our knapsacks were left behind as we did not have transportation for them.

Gen. Crocker is now in command of our division, Quimby having been taken sick.

I do not much expect this will reach you, but will try and get it off. W. S. B.

DEATH OF MRS. RACHAEL HOLMES.—This venerable woman, the widow of the late Judge Holmes, died in this city last night, at the residence of her son-in-law, Volney Atwood, in the 81st year of her age. Mrs. Holmes came into Janesville in 1836, with her husband and several children, removing from Indiana into this state. She was a native of Pennsylvania, and prior to her residence in Indiana emigrated to Ohio. At the time of her removal to Janesville, there were probably less than 100 white people in the county of Rock, and during her residence here she has not only witnessed the wonderful growth of the city and county, but lived to see the children brought to a wilderness home steadily growing into public respect and confidence and individual usefulness. Few mothers have been more abundantly blessed, and few women so universally esteemed.

The funeral services will be attended at the residence of Mr. Atwood to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

NOTICE.

The building the New Catholic Church is to be let immediately, by contract. Proposals will be received during this week. The plan and specifications can be seen and examined at Father Conroy's house. 18d1w

"Their music is decidedly fine, especially their quartets; and it will be long ere we forget that magnificent and heaven inspiring chant, "Where shall the soul find rest," as sung by the Alleghanians.—Presbyin Witness.

"The Alleghanians have cause to be gratified with their remarkable success. They have certainly carried off the palm of public favor, and are growing in popularity every night."—Harper's Magazine.

This company will appear at Lappin's Hall next Thursday evening.

FAIRBANKS' SCALES.—In a recent number of the Boston Daily Evening Traveler, is the following report of a case tried in the superior court of that city.

"The plaintiffs claimed $90.00 balance due for a platform scale sold defendant. The defence was, that the scale was to be equal to a sample of Fairbanks' make. He claimed that it was inferior, and therefore demanded a deduction from the price.—Evidence was introduced to show that the scale supplied was not of more than half the strength of the Fairbanks' scale, with which it was to be equal in every respect. Verdict for plaintiffs, $64.60."

REMOVAL AND NEW LAW FIRM.—Our advertising columns some weeks since announced the copartnership of Willard Merrill and H. N. Comstock in the practice of law, and to-day the new firm announce a removal into the commodious rooms in the corner of Lappin's block adjoining their late office. Both these gentlemen are well and favorably known in their profession, and an increase of office accommodations has become necessary to meet the wants of their business.

ASSESSORS AND LICENSES.—At the special meeting of the council Saturday evening, A. E. Burpee and John Nichols were appointed assessors, and licenses to sell spirituous were granted to the following persons:

Hiram J Baker, O A Bates, Patrick Mullen, R M Hollister, Grant & Long, James Mahoney, Daniel Gower, John Sheikar, George Harvey, B Wheeler, John Dunn, Chas Pulker, O F Meyer, Lewis Wilbur, Chas Bettler, H Hammond, John Lill, Michael Geiss, Barnes & Sarassy, Geo Bodle, Lawrence Ryan, John Roethinger, A E Apfel, Samuel Hocking, Thomas Doyle, Conners & Conway, G Fritz.

THE BLACK SWAN.—This world renowned cantatrice is to give one grand vocal and instrumental concert at Lappin's Hall on Wednesday evening of this week. She is assisted by emenent talent. Dr. I. Kriss, the favorite pupil of Thalberg, is pianist for the troupe. The world wide reputation of the Swan is such, that the bare announcement of her concert is almost sufficient to draw out a full house. [COM.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

PUBLIC INSPECTION

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and

of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties, that having declined from 74 to 34 per cent, or about 60 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth, cannot pretend to

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

From the Twelfth Battery.

CAMP IN THE FIELD, May 4.

EDS. GAZETTE:—You are probably by this time quite anxious to hear of our whereabouts, but I do not know as I can inform you as to that, for it is impossible to ascertain localities in this country, but from what I learn we are nearly in the rear of Vicksburg. We crossed the river on the first of May, just too late to take part in the battle, and the next morning marched nearly to the front, Logan's division taking the advance and our division next in order. The rebels have been retreating for the last two days but have now, I hear, made a stand; at least it looks like it, for there was fighting at the front all of last night and nearly all the forenoon.

The boys are all well and in good spirits. Lieut. Harlow we left on the Louisiana side of the river, he having been sick some time. Our knapsacks were left behind as we did not have transportation for them.

Gen. Crocker is now in command of our division, Quimby having been taken sick.

I do not much expect this will reach you, but will try and get it off. W. S. B.

DEATH OF MRS. RACHAEL HOLMES.—This venerable woman, the widow of the late Judge Holmes, died in this city last night, at the residence of her son-in-law, Volney Atwood, in the 81st year of her age. Mrs. Holmes came into Janesville in 1836, with her husband and several children, removing from Indiana into this state. She was a native of Pennsylvania, and prior to her residence in Indiana emigrated to Ohio. At the time of her removal to Janesville, there were probably less than 100 white people in the county of Rock, and during her residence here she has not only witnessed the wonderful growth of the city and county, but lived to see the children brought to a wilderness home steadily growing into public respect and confidence and individual usefulness. Few mothers have been more abundantly blessed, and few women so universally esteemed.

The funeral services will be attended at the residence of Mr. Atwood to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

NOTICE.

The building the New Catholic Church is to be let immediately, by contract. Proposals will be received during this week. The plan and specifications can be seen and examined at Father Conroy's house. 18d1w

"Their music is decidedly fine, especially their quartets; and it will be long ere we forget that magnificent and heaven inspiring chant, "Where shall the soul find rest," as sung by the Alleghanians.—Presbyin Witness.

FAIRBANKS' SCALES.—In a recent number of the Boston Daily Evening Traveler, is the following report of a case tried in the superior court of that city.

"The plaintiffs claimed $90.00 balance due for a platform scale sold defendant. The defence was, that the scale was to be equal to a sample of Fairbanks' make. He claimed that it was inferior, and therefore demanded a deduction from the price.—Evidence was introduced to show that the scale supplied was not of more than half the strength of the Fairbanks' scale, with which it was to be equal in every respect. Verdict for plaintiffs, $64.60."

REMOVAL AND NEW LAW FIRM.—Our advertising columns some weeks since announced the copartnership of Willard Merrill and H. N. Comstock in the practice of law, and to-day the new firm announce a removal into the commodious rooms in the corner of Lappin's block adjoining their late office. Both these gentlemen are well and favorably known in their profession, and an increase of office accommodations has become necessary to meet the wants of their business.

ASSESSORS AND LICENSES.—At the special meeting of the council Saturday evening, A. E. Burpee and John Nichols were appointed assessors, and licenses to sell spirituous were granted to the following persons:

Hiram J Baker, O A Bates, Patrick Mullen, R M Hollister, Grant & Long, James Mahoney, Daniel Gower, John Sheikar, George Harvey, B Wheeler, John Dunn, Chas Pulker, O F Meyer, Lewis Wilbur, Chas Bettler, H Hammond, John Lill, Michael Geiss, Barnes & Sarassy, Geo Bodle, Lawrence Ryan, John Roethinger, A E Apfel, Samuel Hocking, Thomas Doyle, Conners & Conway, G Fritz.

THE BLACK SWAN.—This world renowned cantatrice is to give one grand vocal and instrumental concert at Lappin's Hall on Wednesday evening of this week. She is assisted by emenent talent. Dr. I. Kriss, the favorite pupil of Thalberg, is pianist for the troupe. The world wide reputation of the Swan is such, that the bare announcement of her concert is almost sufficient to draw out a full house. [COM.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and

of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 35 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

Piles of Goods,

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth, cannot pretend to in proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York E Sheetings, 30c per yd.
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory, 25c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines, 25c "
600 ps new Spring DeLaines, 31½c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long, $2 50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 3½c"

200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd, which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 40c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.

We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior at old prices. Our stock of

will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Bordure Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.

IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS

We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.

Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett

In Our Millinery Department will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnets and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Arboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.

OUR CLOTHING STORE

is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of

GENT'S GARMENTS.

We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of

Fancy Cassimeres,

which, if desired, we shall

MAKE UP TO ORDER

in the first style of fashion.

In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the [illegible]

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

SOUTH FIRST STREET.

Specifications for Grading, Paving Gutters and building Crosswalks on South First Street, between Main Street and Jackman Street in the Third Ward.

GRADING.—The road bed will be 80 feet in width between the paving of the gutters, and the center line of the road bed will be 18 inches above the bottom of the gutters. The road bed when completed will be crowning and uniform in surface, rising regularly from the bottom of the gutters to said center line. The grading will be estimated by the cubic yard in excavation, nothing being allowed for earth in embankment, surfacing, &c.

The material for embankment will be taken, first, from the sides of the road and in such manner as form the gutters and a grade for sidewalks.

And, secondly, from the excavation to be made the line of the road.

When the haul does not exceed 300 feet it will be estimated simply as earth in excavation, and bids must be made for the cubic yard, for every 100 feet over 300 feet.

The material for the road bed is to be earth and clay and no sand or gravel to be used.

GUTTERS.—The gutters, one on each side of said street are to be six feet in width at the top and eight inches in depth at the lowest point.

The gutters will be paved with good sound stone eight inches in width and placed upon their edges, and laid upon sand and gravel, and in such manner as to form a curved channel for the water. The shape of the gutters and the manner of laying the outside courses of stone, will be such as the aldermen of said ward may direct. The paving will be estimated by the lineal foot, which will include preparing bed for the stone, laying stone, hauling and furnishing same, &c.

SIDEWALKS.—The bed for the sidewalks, on each side of said street, will be 12 feet wide, composed of sand or gravel or other good material, and will correspond, in grade, as near as may be with the center line of said street; the said walks are to be made smooth and even and ready for planking:

CROSSWALKS.—At the southern intersection Bluff, Division and Wisconsin streets with said South First street, there are to be stone crosswalks three feet in width and composed of stone, not less than one foot in thickness and three feet in length, all well laid.

All said work to be done under the direction of the alderman of said third Ward.—Dated April 10th, 1863.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the SAME

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case knew the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

☞ We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
